- (b) evaluate and review audit policy;
- (b) evaluate the management procedures—
 - (i) regarding internal control; and
 - (ii) regarding financial reporting.

(4) The members of an audit committee shall be appointed for a term of three years and may be re-appointed for a further term of three years.

(5) A member of an audit committee shall be paid such allowance as the Minister may, by statutory instrument, prescribe.

(6) An audit committee shall meet, for the transaction of business, once in every three months at such places and at such times as the Chairperson may determine.

(7) Subject to the other provisions of this Act an audit committee shall regulate its own procedure.

PART III
CONTROL OF PUBLIC FINANCES

13. (1) There shall be established a Consolidated Fund into which all general revenues and other public moneys accruing to the Treasury shall be credited. Consolidated Fund

(2) The moneys payable to the Consolidated Fund under subsection (1) shall be deposited into the Treasury Account which shall be maintained at the Bank of Zambia.

14. Payments from the Consolidated Fund shall not be made except in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and this Act. Payments from Consolidated Fund Cap. 1

15. (1) Subject to any express direction of the Secretary to the Treasury in respect of the operation of any Fund or Working Account established pursuant to section twenty-five all moneys received by any accounting officer shall be deposited not later than the next business day following the day of receipt. Gross Revenues

(2) All moneys paid into a bank pursuant to sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be public moneys.

(3) A controlling officer shall not invest public funds without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury and details of all investments made from public funds shall be copied to the Auditor General.

(4) Any officer who without reasonable cause fails to deposit moneys received as provided under subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

16. (1) When the Annual Budget has been approved by the National Assembly, the Minister shall table an Appropriation Bill to cover the appropriation of funds voted under various heads or expenditure for the financial year. Appropriation

(2) Unless special provision to the contrary is made in any Appropriation Act, every appropriation by the National Assembly of public moneys for the service of any financial year shall lapse and cease to have any effect at the close of that year.

(3) Where an Appropriation Act has not come into force at the commencement of any financial year, the President may authorise by provisional warrant the withdrawal of moneys from the Treasury account for the purpose of meeting expenditure necessary to carry on the services of the Government until the expiration of four months from the beginning of that financial year or the coming into operation of that Act whichever is earlier.

(4) Any sum so authorised under subsection (3) shall not exceed the sum specified for such service in the estimates presented for the current year or one third of the sums provided in the Appropriation and Supplementary Appropriation Acts of the previous year, whichever is the lesser, and shall be set off against the amounts respectively provided in the Appropriation Act upon the same coming into operation.

Releases of Funds

Cap. 1

17. (1) As soon as the Appropriation Act has been passed by Parliament and the General Warrant has been issued by the President pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, the Secretary to the Treasury shall—

(a) cause to be released from the Treasury Account the amounts becoming payable during the ensuing month of statutory and Constitutional expenditure; and

(b) release from the Treasury Account amounts not exceeding in the whole the sums applied by Appropriation Acts for the supply of goods and services during the financial year.

(2) Notwithstanding the issue of a warrant, the Minister may limit or suspend expenditure, with or without cancellation of the warrant, if in the Minister's opinion financial exigencies or the public interest so require.

(3) The Secretary to the Treasury shall withhold the release of funds to a controlling officer or an institution which—

(a) over commits Government to expenditures in excess of appropriated funds; or

(b) does not submit to the Secretary to the Treasury and the Auditor-General returns including receipts and utilization of grants or donations contrary to the provisions of this Act and accompanying regulations.

Releases to be paid to bank
accounts

18. All releases from the Treasury to the credit of Government bank accounts at the end of every financial year shall be deemed to be public moneys and shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund unless prior authority has been obtained from the Secretary to the Treasury for their retention in such accounts.

Bank
balances at end of financial year

19. All unspent balances standing to the credit of Government bank accounts at the end of every financial year shall be deemed to be public moneys and shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund unless prior authority has been obtained from the Secretary to the Treasury for their retention in such accounts.

Bank accounts in respect of public moneys

20. (1) A person shall not open or close any account in respect of public moneys with any bank without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury.

(2) A bank shall not permit an account in respect of public moneys to be opened or closed without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury.

(3) A person shall not permit a bank account in respect of public moneys to be overdrawn or arrange for an overdraft without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury.

(4) A bank shall not permit an overdraft to be incurred on any bank account in respect of public moneys without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury.

(5) All banks maintaining accounts in respect of public moneys shall submit to the account holders and the Secretary to the Treasury such statements as may be required from time to time.

(6) No transfer of public moneys shall be made between accounts at the same bank or different banks without the written approval of the Secretary to the Treasury.

(7) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsections (1) and (3) commits an offence and shall be liable to disciplinary action as provided under this Act.

(8) Any contravention, by a bank, of the provisions of subsections (2) or (4) may result in all accounts containing public moneys in that bank being closed and transferred to other banks.

(9) The Secretary to the Treasury may delegate functions under this section to the Accountant General.

21. All interest accrued on bank accounts and other investments shall constitute general revenue and shall be paid into the Treasury Account.

Interest on bank accounts

22. (1) Moneys standing to the credit of the Republic in the Treasury Account or with any other bank account and not immediately required for any other purpose may be authorised to be invested by the Secretary to the Treasury with a bank at call or subject to notice not exceeding twelve months or in any of the investments authorised by law for the investment of trustee funds.

Investments

(2) Where any investment under subsection (1) is realised the proceeds shall be paid by the Treasury to the credit of the Treasury Account.

(3) All investments made under this section shall form part of the Consolidated Fund.

23. (1) Any deposit of money, other than public moneys raised or received which may be deposited with any public officer authorised to receive such deposit, shall not form part of the Consolidated Fund and shall not, except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4), be applied for any public purposes.

Deposits

(2) Any interest accruing on a deposit, shall not be credited to the Consolidated Fund.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this section, the Secretary to the Treasury may administer a deposit in such manner as the Secretary to the Treasury thinks fit and may, in any appropriate case, refund a deposit or any part of it to any person entitled to it.

(4) A deposit which is unclaimed for over a year shall, subject to any other enactment, cease to be a deposit and accrue to the general revenues provided that if a genuine claim is received for refund of the deposit, such refund shall be made from the general revenues.

(5) Any deposit arising from seizures of money and property shall not constitute part of general revenues until such cases are disposed off by courts of law or any other relevant authorities.

Contingency
Fund

24. (1) There shall be established a Contingency Fund for the purpose of enabling advances to be made to meet urgent and unforeseen expenditure in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) Where the Minister is of the opinion that it is necessary to incur expenditure on any service—

(a) which, being a new service, is not provided for in the estimates of a particular ministry; or

(b) which will result in an excess of the sum provided for that service in the estimates, and that expenditure cannot, without injury to the public service, be postponed until provision, or adequate provision, as the case may be, is made by Parliament;

the Minister may, by warrant under the President's hand, and in anticipation of approval of supplementary provision being given in Parliament, authorise an advance from the Contingency Fund of the amount required.

(3) The Secretary to the Treasury shall issue instructions from time to time for the operation of the Fund.

Funds and working accounts

25. (1) Where the Secretary to the Treasury considers it expedient to do so, the Secretary to the Treasury may establish funds or working accounts for the purpose of—

(a) the purchase of stores, equipment or livestock for subsequent use or resale;

(b) services rendered or to be rendered by any individual and it is desirable to recover the cost of such services from such other department or individual; or

(c) the making of grants or loans for purposes specified in the estimates of expenditure, or where moneys are made available from any other source for any of the above stated purposes.

(2) Each fund or working account established under subsection (1) shall be credited with its receipts, earnings and accruals and any moneys —

(a) appropriated by Parliament for the purposes for which it was established; or

(b) which otherwise may be made available for the fund or working account;

may be expended from the fund or working account on the purposes for which it was established.

(3) The Secretary to the Treasury may give directions as to the manner in which any fund or working account established under subsection (1) may be operated.

(4) Except where the Secretary to the Treasury otherwise directs, the receipts, earnings or accruals of any funds or working accounts established pursuant to this section or any balance standing to the credit of any such fund or working account at the close of the financial year shall not be paid into the Consolidated Fund but shall be retained in the fund or working account and such fund or working account shall not be closed.

(5) Where the Secretary to the Treasury is satisfied that a fund or working account established under subsection (1) has fulfilled its purpose or is not being operated for the purpose for which it was established, the Secretary to the Treasury may direct that the fund or working account be closed and that the balance outstanding in such fund or working account be paid into the Treasury Account for the credit of general revenues.

26. (1) Upon the commencement of this Act, the Minister shall, by statutory instrument, provide for balances standing to the credit of the Treasury Account together with all other sums standing to the credit of any other public account of the Government of Zambia which shall form part of the Consolidated Fund.

Existing
funds

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to any sums of money held in trust by, or under the control of any court or officer of a court, the public trustee, the Administrator-General or the Official Receiver or to any sums of money held in trust by any other officer for purposes other than the purposes of the Government.

(3) All investments held by the Treasury or by any other person on behalf of the Republic on the date on which this Act comes into operation shall if the same are not already held on account of the funds held in the Consolidated Fund be deemed to have been made out of moneys from the Consolidated Fund.

Recoverable
advances

27. (1) The Secretary to the Treasury may at any time authorise the issue, from the Consolidated Fund, of sums of money which may be used for the following purposes:

(a) to meet payments due for public services which for reasons the Secretary to the Treasury considers sufficient, cannot presently be charged to any vote;

(b) to provide imprest accounts for the use of departments or individuals;

(c) to make payments for, and on behalf of another Government or person at the request of such Government or person:

Provided that the amounts so paid shall be recoverable from such other Government or person;

(d) to make provision for any payment which has been made under any head of expenditure and which has been disallowed as a charge against the head of expenditure in the approved estimates;

(e) to advance public moneys to any person where such advance is in the public interest and is—

(i) repayable at some future date;

(ii) subsequently chargeable against any head of expenditure; or

(iii) in part repayable as provided by sub-paragraph (i) and in part chargeable as provided by sub-paragraph (ii);

and for such purposes separate records (in this Act referred to as "advances accounts") shall be maintained:

Provided that any such advance shall not be made in anticipation of an appropriation by the National Assembly.

(2) Except where the Secretary to the Treasury otherwise directs, any balance outstanding and unpaid in any advance account at the close of any financial year shall not be charged to any expenditure vote.

Aided
projects

28. (1) All moneys received by way of loans, grants, and donations shall constitute public moneys and shall be paid into the Treasury Account for the credit of the Consolidated Fund.

(2) The Secretary to the Treasury shall make provision in the budget estimates for loans, grants and donations receivable in cash.

(3) Where the quantum of the loan, grant or donation referred to in subsection (2) is not known a provision shall be included in the estimates and when the quantum becomes known a supplementary estimate shall be raised for the amount involved.

(4) Where loans, grants and donations are receivable in kind, the value of such donations shall be determined and included in the estimates and reflected as expenditure in the financial year.

(5) Moneys received for specified projects which have been paid into the Treasury Account shall be released when required to the appropriate project bank account.

(6) The Secretary to the Treasury shall—

(a) cause separate and proper books and records to be kept and maintained in respect of all projects and for appropriate audited financial statements to be included in the financial report; and

(b) ensure that whenever projects are completed, the project assets including buildings, plant, vehicles, furniture, fittings and equipment are properly recorded and handed over to Government or other appropriate authorities within the time frame provided for in the agreement.

(7) Where no time frame is provided for project assets shall be handed over within three months from the date of the closure of the project.

(8) In the absence of any instructions to the contrary any unexpended balance standing to the credit of any project account shall be paid into the Treasury Account for the credit of the Consolidated Fund.

29. (1) Where—

(a) any public moneys have been lost or misappropriated; or
 (b) any public stores have been lost, damaged or misappropriated, then subject to the express provisions of this or any other written law, such loss may, with the approval of the Secretary to the Treasury, be charged against moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

Losses of
or stores

(2) The Secretary to the Treasury shall—

(a) have power to—

(i) write off deficits of public moneys and the value of deficient, damaged, condemned, unserviceable or obsolete public stores;

(ii) abandon irrecoverable amounts of revenue, debts and overpayments except where, by any other Act, such power is expressly conferred upon any other public officer in respect of any specified class of public revenue, debts or overpayments;

(iii) write off unused accountable forms including receipt forms which have been lost or damaged on being satisfied that they have not been fraudulently used;

or

- (iv) delegate in writing to any officer any powers which the Secretary to the Treasury is authorised to exercise under paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) setting out in each case the limits up to which such powers may be exercised; and
- (b) cause details of all write-offs and abandonments effected pursuant to paragraph (a) to be published in the annual financial report and Gazette.
- (3) Where any public stores are no longer required the Secretary to the Treasury, may, on the recommendation of the Board of Survey direct the disposal thereof by destruction or sale by public auction, or public tender and payment of the proceeds of sale if any into the general revenues of the Republic.

PART IV SURCHARGE

Failure by controlling officer
to perform

30. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Part, where a controlling officer fails to perform any financial duties assigned under this Act and such failure results in a loss of public moneys, a failure to collect revenue due to the Government or in wasteful or unnecessary expenditure of public moneys by a ministry or department, the Secretary to the Treasury shall —

- (a) impose on such controlling officer a surcharge equivalent to the loss, wasteful or nugatory expenditure incurred by Government; and
- (b) recommend to the Secretary to the Cabinet disciplinary action to be taken against the defaulting controlling officer which may include —
- (i) an appropriate surcharge;
 - (ii) a demotion of the controlling officer or both; or
 - (iii) such other disciplinary action as may be decided by the appropriate disciplinary authority.

(2) In addition to the disciplinary action referred to in subsection (1) the Secretary to the Treasury may recommend to the Minister to have the controlling officer replaced:

Provided that before such a recommendation is made the controlling officer shall be given an opportunity to exculpate oneself of the charge.

Surcharge

31. (1) If through any act of wilful default or gross neglect of duty any officer —

- (a) whenever it is such officer's duty to collect any moneys due and owing to the Government, the officer fails to collect the same and by reason of such failure such moneys cannot be collected;

- (b) makes, causes or permits any improper payment of public moneys, or any payment of such public moneys which is not duly authorised or for which no funds have been provided;
- (c) causes or permits any loss or deficiency in respect of any public moneys under the officer's control and for which he is bound to account;
- (d) causes or permits any damage to or destruction or loss of any public stores;
- (e) causes or permits any personal injury or damage to property in circumstances which give rise to liability of the Republic to third persons in respect of such injury or damage;
- (f) causes or permits damage to or loss of any Government building, or any fixtures, fittings or furniture therein; or
- (g) makes improper decisions which result in loss of public moneys or property; that officer shall be liable to the Government in such amount in respect of such failure to collect, improper payment, loss, deficiency, damage or destruction, as the case may be, as may be determined pursuant to subsection (4) and, subject to the provisions of this section, any liability so determined may be recovered at the suit of the Attorney-General in that behalf.

(2) If the Secretary to the Treasury is of the opinion that loss has been suffered by the Government because of any act or wilful default or gross neglect of duty of any officer, as referred to in subsection (1), the Secretary to the Treasury may assess, as attributable to such act, an amount, being not greater than the actual loss suffered, and shall forward to the officer, a notice in writing, of the assessment of claim and of the amount thereof.

(3) Within twenty-one days after the receipt by the officer from the Secretary to the Treasury of a notice of assessment of claim pursuant to subsection (2), the officer may make representations to the Secretary to the Treasury, in writing, with respect to—

- (a) the officer's liability under subsection (1); or
 - (b) the amount assessed pursuant to subsection (2) attributable to the officer's act of wilful default or gross neglect of duty;
- and the Secretary to the Treasury shall give due consideration to any representation so made by the officer.

(4) If—

- (a) after the expiration of twenty-one days from the date upon which notice of assessment of claim was forwarded to the officer, pursuant to subsection (2), the Secretary to the Treasury receives no representation from the officer pursuant to subsection (3); or

(b) after giving due consideration to any representation made by the officer pursuant to subsection (3), the Secretary to the Treasury is of the opinion that the officer should be held liable to the Government as stated in the notice of assessment of claim;

the Secretary to the Treasury may determine the amount of the liability of the officer and the amount assessed pursuant to subsection (2), or, if the Secretary to the Treasury deems fit, at a lesser amount, and shall make demand in writing upon the officer for payment of the amount so determined.

(5) If, after giving due consideration to the representations made by the officer pursuant to subsection (3), the Secretary to the Treasury is of the opinion that the officer did not commit any act of wilful default or gross neglect of duty in respect of the matters grounding the assessment of claim made pursuant to subsection (2), the Secretary to the Treasury shall cancel the assessment of claim and notify the officer, in writing, of the cancellation.

(6) Upon receipt of the demand for payment referred to in subsection (4), the officer may, in writing—

(a) admit liability in the sum stated in the demand for payment; and

(b) consent to the recovery of the admitted or agreed sum by equal monthly instalments by way of deduction from the salary or pension of the officer in a stated monthly sum, to be fixed by the Secretary to the Treasury, not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly salary or pension, as the case may be, of the officer.

(7) Where any officer has admitted liability in any admitted or agreed sum and consented to the recovery of such sum as provided by subsection (6), and the officer's employment by the Republic is terminated, whether by resignation, dismissal, death or otherwise, before the entire sum admitted or agreed has been fully recovered the admission of liability shall be deemed to be, and shall have effect as a consent to judgement in favour of the Republic in the amount of any outstanding balance of the admitted or agreed sum remaining unpaid at the date of the termination of the officer's employment, and such consent to judgement shall be effective in any proceedings brought in respect of the liability against the officer or the officers's legal representatives, as the case may be.

(8) If, after the expiration of ten days after receipt of the demand for payment referred to in subsection (4), the officer has failed to admit liability pursuant to subsection (6), the Attorney-General may institute proceedings for the recovery of the amount so demanded.

(9) Anything done pursuant to this section shall be without prejudice to the exercise of disciplinary action over the officer by any lawful authority in respect of any act of wilful default or gross neglect of duty.

32. (1) In any action brought for the recovery from any officer of any liability to the Government under the provisions of section thirty-one, the court may, at any time after the action is brought, grant, on the ex parte application of the Attorney-General, an interim order of surcharge pursuant to subsections (2) and (3).

Interim and final order of
surcharge

(2) An application for an interim order of surcharge pursuant to subsection (1) shall be grounded upon the affidavit of the Secretary to the Treasury setting out—

(a) the facts upon which the claim is founded and exhibiting copies of the notice of assessment of claim and demand for payment, issued and forwarded to the officer pursuant to subsections (2) and (3), respectively, of section thirty-one; and

(b) disclose the official status of the officer, the officer's length of service, the officer's monthly salary, and how long the officer was employed in the position the officer held at the time when the alleged loss, incorrect, payment deficiency or damage occurred.

(3) An interim order of surcharge made pursuant to this section shall empower the Secretary to the Treasury to cause to be deducted from the salary of the officer a stated sum each month, not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly salary of the officer, and, pending the final determination of the action, to apply the deducted sums towards the liquidation of the amount claimed.

(4) If any action, in which an interim order of surcharge was obtained pursuant to this section, is discontinued, or is dismissed by the court, the interim order shall, upon the filing of the notice of discontinuance, or upon the judgement of dismissal becoming final, as the case may be, cease to have any force or effect, and the Secretary to the Treasury shall, within twenty-one days thereafter, cause such sums as had been deducted from the monthly salary of the officer on the authority of the interim order to be refunded to the officer in full.

(5) Where in any action, in which an interim order of surcharge was obtained pursuant to this section, judgement is decreed in the amount claimed, or in any lesser amount, and costs, the court may, on the application of the Attorney-General, make an order of surcharge in respect of the balance due on the judgement after deducting from the judgement all sums up to the time of the judgement deducted from the monthly salary of the officer pursuant to the interim order.

(6) Any order of surcharge made pursuant to this subsection shall be in such terms as the court may consider fit and shall empower the Secretary to the Treasury to deduct from the salary of the judgement debtor a stated sum each month, not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly salary of the judgement debtor, until all sums outstanding on the authority of the judgement and costs have been paid in full.

(7) If on any action judgement is decreed in an amount which together with any costs allowed is less than the total sum deducted pursuant to an interim order of surcharge made under this section, the Secretary to the Treasury shall, within twenty-one days after such judgement becomes final, cause to be refunded to the judgement debtor any sum deducted in excess of the amount of the judgement and costs.

(8) Where a final order for surcharge made pursuant to this section is in force in respect of any officer, and the employment of the officer by the Republic is terminated, whether by resignation, dismissal, death or otherwise, the Secretary to the Treasury may, against any moneys payable to the officer by the Government, set off any balance remaining unpaid on the authority of the judgement in respect of which the surcharge order was made.

(9) Any judgement decreed pursuant to this section shall be without prejudice to the exercise of disciplinary action over such officer by any lawful authority in respect of the act, wilful default or gross neglect of duty giving rise to the action in which such judgement was decreed.

officer as security

33. (1) Where an officer steals or converts to the officer's own use any public funds or any public stores and an action is brought against such officer at the suit of the Attorney-General for the recovery of such moneys, property or stores or for damages for their loss, the Attorney-General may apply ex parte to the court, either at the time of the institution of the action, or at any time thereafter until final judgement, for an order directing that any property belonging to the officer shall be attached until the further order of the court, and such order of attachment shall be executed according to its tenor.

(2) Where the property sought to be attached pursuant to subsection (1) is—

(a) land, or any interest in land, the application shall contain a description of the land sufficient to identify the same for the purposes of registration of the order directing the attachment in the Lands Registry pursuant to subsection (4), together with a statement of the interest of the officer therein required to be attached;

- (b) movable personal property, the application shall contain a description of the property required to be attached, the estimated value thereof so far as can reasonably be ascertained, and the place where the property may be found;
- (c) a bank or building society account, the application shall contain the name of the bank or building society and the address of the office or branch thereof at which the account is believed to be kept and, if the account is not in the name of the officer, the name in which it is kept and a statement of any reason why such account is believed to be the property of the officer;
- (d) an account in any other financial institution, the application shall contain the name under which such account is kept, and if the account is not in the name of the officer, the name in which it is kept and a statement of any reason why such account is believed to be the property of the officer;
- (e) a debt owing to the officer, the application shall contain the name and address of the debtor; and
- (f) shares in a company, the application shall contain the name of the company and the address of its registered office in Zambia.

(3) In any order directing the attachment of property pursuant to subsection (1), the court may direct the attachment of the whole of the property specified pursuant to subsection (2) or such portion thereof as the court considers sufficient to satisfy any judgement which may be passed in the action.

(4) Where the property directed to be attached pursuant to this section is land or an interest in land, such attachment shall be effected by lodging a certified copy of the order directing the attachment in the Registry of Lands and Deeds, for entry in the register, and any such attachment so effected shall be in the nature of a caveat by the Attorney-General in respect of the lands attached, and the provisions of Part VI of the Lands and Deeds Registry Act shall apply, with necessary modification, to such attachment.

Cap. 185

(5) Where the action brought is one for the return of specific goods claimed to be public stores unlawfully detained by an officer, the order made pursuant to subsection (1) may provide that the goods, upon being attached pursuant to the court order, be delivered to the Government to be retained by the Government until the further order of the court:

Provided that no such delivery shall be ordered pursuant to this subsection unless the Attorney-General gives an undertaking on behalf of the Government that the goods shall be returned to the officer in the event of the dismissal of the action.

(6) Any attachments made pursuant to this section shall not affect the rights in the attached property of persons who are not parties to the action, and in the event of any claim being preferred to the attached property, the claim shall be investigated in the manner prescribed for the investigation of claims to property attached in execution of a judgement of the court.

(7) In all cases of attachment pursuant to this section, the Court shall, at any time, remove or discharge the order upon the officer furnishing sufficient security to satisfy any judgement which may be ordered against the officer in the action together with security for the costs of the attachment.

(8) Where in any action in which property is attached pursuant to subsection (1) final judgement is decreed -

(a) in favour of the officer, the court shall remove the attachment, and order, where necessary, the restoration of the property to the officer;

(b) in favour of the Attorney-General, the court shall issue execution against the attached property to the extent of the judgement and costs, and upon such execution being effected the attachment shall cease to have any further force or effect.

(9) The Attorney-General may at any time, in the prescribed form, consent to the removal from attachment, pursuant to this section, of the whole or any part of any property so attached, and such consent shall have effect according to its tenor.

(10) Where the order directing attachment has been registered in respect of any lands pursuant to subsection (4) any consent to the removal of such attachment pursuant to subsection (9) in respect of such lands or any part thereof shall be registered and shall have effect as a withdrawal pro tanto of the attachment of the lands.

(11) The provisions of any Act or rule of law suspending any civil remedy in respect of the subject-matter of any criminal proceedings pending the determination of such proceedings shall not apply so as to limit or suspend the obtaining of an order of attachment pursuant to this section.

PART V

CONTROL OF STATUTORY CORPORATIONS.

34. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, the Secretary to the Treasury shall ensure that Government is represented on all boards of directors of statutory corporations.

(2) The Board of directors of any statutory corporation referred to in subsection (1) shall furnish the Secretary to the Treasury at the end of every financial year with reports covering the operations of such statutory corporations and the corporation's financial affairs.

Representation on statutory corporations

- 35. Before any grant is released to a statutory corporation the Secretary to the Treasury shall, in writing, set conditions for the appropriation of the grant and the statutory corporation shall comply with the conditions:
- Provided that if the statutory corporation fails to comply with the conditions, the Secretary to the Treasury may suspend release of further grants to the statutory corporation until such time as the conditions are complied with.
- 36. The Secretary to the Treasury shall ensure that grants released to statutory corporations are appropriated for the purposes for which they are released.
- 37. (1) Where on the creation of a statutory corporation, it becomes necessary for Government assets to be vested in such statutory corporation, the Secretary to the Treasury shall arrange for such assets to be valued by a qualified valuer and the value of such assets shall be reckoned as Government's contribution to the accumulated fund of the statutory corporation.
- (2) On the transfer of assets referred to in subsection (1), the value of the assets transferred shall be reflected in the financial report.
- 38. (1) The Secretary to the Treasury shall cause to be maintained a record of all moneys invested in statutory corporations and ensure that such statutory corporations are managed efficiently so that they yield reasonable dividends to Government.
- (2) For purposes of subsection (1), the chief executive officer of the statutory corporation shall ensure that financial statements including management reports and returns are submitted to the Secretary to the Treasury on a regular basis.
- 39. (1) If at any time it becomes apparent to the Secretary to the Treasury that the operations of a statutory corporation are not being carried out in an efficient manner, the Secretary to the Treasury shall bring this matter to the notice of the Board of such statutory corporation.
- (2) If in spite of bringing the matter to the notice of the Board there is no noticeable improvement in the operations of the statutory corporation, the Secretary to the Treasury shall refer the matter to the Minister and the Minister shall take such action as the Minister may consider necessary.
- 40. (1) The chief executive officer of a statutory corporation shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the assets of the statutory corporation are protected against misuse or theft.

Protection of Government interest on privatisation of statutory corporation

41. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, the Secretary to the Treasury shall ensure that on the privatisation of a statutory corporation, Government's interests in that statutory corporation are adequately protected and that the proceeds of the sale of the statutory corporation are paid into the Privatisation Revenue Account.

Recovery of outstanding moneys
Cap.386

42. Where moneys are owing from the sale of a statutory corporation to private investors under the Privatisation Act, the chief executive officer of the Zambia Privatisation Agency shall ensure that such moneys are recovered and credited to the Privatisation Revenue Account.

Dissolution of statutory corporation

43. (1) Subject to the provisions of any other written law, in the event of the dissolution of a statutory corporation which has been receiving grants from Government and where the Board of such statutory corporation has been dissolved the Secretary to the Treasury shall constitute a Committee consisting of not less than three members two of whom shall be Government officers to wind up the affairs of such statutory corporation.

(2) The committee appointed under subsection (1) shall ensure that—

- (a) the assets of such statutory corporation are properly inventorised, valued and disposed of subject to the instructions of the Secretary to the Treasury;
- (b) ensure that all debts due to such statutory corporation are promptly recovered;
- (c) ensure that the claims of all creditors including employees and tax liabilities, if any, are proved and settled in full;
- (d) any balance remaining after the conclusion of transactions referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) is credited to Government revenue; and
- (e) any asset considered strategic by Government in the public interest reverts to the ownership of the Government at no cost to Government.

AUDIT

Auditor-General to audit accounts of statutory corporations
Cap. 378

44. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any written law establishing a statutory corporation with respect to the appointment of an auditor, it shall be the duty of the Auditor-General, at such times as the Auditor-General considers fit, to audit in accordance with the provisions of the Public Audit Act the accounts of any statutory corporation.

(2) In the performance of duty under subsection (1), the Auditor General and any public officer, agent or specialist consultant authorised by the Auditor General shall have access to all the books, records, returns, reports and other documents relating to the accounts of a statutory corporation as the Auditor General considers necessary.

45. (1) The Auditor-General shall carry out performance and specialised audits in respect of a ministry, Government department or statutory corporation as the Auditor General may consider necessary and shall prepare a report on the audit for submission to the National Assembly.
