Weights and Measures

(No. 12 of 2003 65

(Amendment)

(2) Except as provided in this Act, every deed, bond and agreement (other than an agreement for personal service) to which the Government was a party immediately before the commencement of this Act in respect of the Assize Department, whether in writing or not, and whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall, unless its subject-matter or terms make it impossible that it should have effect as modified in the manner provided by this subsection, have effect as from the date of the assignment thereof, as if—

(a) the Agency had been a party thereto;

(b) for any reference to the Government there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to the Agency; and

(c) for any reference to any officer of the Assize Department not being a party thereto and beneficially interested therein there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the commencement of this Act, a reference to such officer of the Agency as the Agency shall designate.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), documents, other than those referred to therein, which refer specifically or generally to the Assize Department shall be construed in accordance with subsection (2) as far as applicable.

43B. (1) Where under this Act, any property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Government through the Assize Department are deemed transferred to the Agency in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the Agency shall make an application in writing to the appropriate authority for registration of the transfer.

(2) The registration authority referred to in subsection (1) shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to such transfer and, where applicable, issue to the transferee concerned a certificate of title in respect of the property or make necessary amendments to the register; as the case may be, and shall make endorsement on the deeds relating to the title, right or obligation concerned, and no registration fees, stamp duty or other duties shall be payable in respect thereof.

43C. (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, where any right, liability or obligation vests in the Agency by virtue of this Act, the Agency and all other persons shall, as from the commencement of this Act, have the same rights, powers and remedies (and in particular the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Agency.

(2) Any legal proceedings or application of any authority pending immediately before the commencement of this Act by or against the Government in respect of the Assize Department may be continued by or against the Agency.

(3) After the commencement of this Act, proceedings in respect of any right, liability or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred or suffered by the Government in respect of the Assize Department may be instituted by or against the Agency.

43D. (1) On or after the appointed date, the Agency shall on such terms and conditions as it may, with the approval of the Member, determine, appoint as officers of the Agency such public officers from the Assize Department as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the Agency.

(2) Where an officer from the Public Service is appointed to the service of the Agency—

(a) the terms and conditions of service with the Agency shall not be less favourable than those the officer enjoyed in the Public Service; and

(b) the officer shall be deemed to have retired under section thirty-nine of the Public Service Pensions Act.

(3) On or after the appointed date employees of the Assize
Department who are not engaged by the Agency under subsection
(2) shall be retained by the Government and shall—

(a) be employed in the service of the Government; or

(b) be entitled under section thirty-nine of the Public Service Pensions Act.

23. Section forty-four of the principal Act is amended by the insertion of a comma and the words "on the advice of the Board", after the word "Minister".

24. The principal Act is amended—

(a) by the deletion of the word "article" wherever it appears and the substitution therefor of the word "commodity";
(b) by the deletion of the word "Assizer" wherever it appears and the substitution therefor of the word "Metrologist";

and

(c) by the deletion of the words "Superintendent Assizer" wherever they appear and the substitution therefor of the word "Director".

25. The principal Act is amended by the repeal of the Thirteenth Schedule and the substitution therefor of the Thirteenth Schedule set out in the Appendix to this Act.

APPENDIX

(Section 25)

THIRTEENTH SCHEDULE

(Section 2A)

THE ZAMBIA WEIGHTS AND MEASURES AGENCY

1. (1) The seal of the Agency shall be such device as may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Secretary.

(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson and the Secretary or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(3) Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the Board by the Secretary or any other person generally or specifically authorised by the Board in that behalf.

(4) Any document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Agency or issued on behalf of the Agency shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

2. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a member of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of appointment and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term of three years:

Provided that the first members shall be appointed for periods ranging from two to three years in order to facilitate retirement by rotation.

(2) A member may resign upon giving one month's notice, in writing, to the organisation which nominated the member and to the Minister.
(3) The office of the member shall become vacant——
   (a) upon the member's death;
   (b) if the member is absent without reasonable excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice;
   (c) on ceasing to be a representative of the organisation which nominated the member;
   (d) if the member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of a member of the Board; or (e) if the member is declared bankrupt.

(4) On the expiration of the period for which a member is appointed the member shall continue to hold office until a successor has been appointed but in no case shall the further period exceed four months.

3. Whenever the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiry of the term of office, the Minister may appoint another member in place of the member who vacates office but that member shall hold office only for the unexpired part of the term.

4. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every three months at such places and times as the Chairperson may determine.

(3) The Chairperson may, upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, call a meeting of the Board and shall call a special meeting to be held within fourteen days of receipt of a written request to the Chairperson by at least five members of the Board.

(4) If the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice as is required under subsection (3), a special meeting may be called by the Chairperson, upon giving a shorter notice.

(5) Five members of the Board shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

(6) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board——
   (a) the Chairperson;
   (b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; or
   (c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson such member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.
(7) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to the deliberative vote.

(8) The Board may invite any person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of the meeting of the Board but such person shall have no vote.

(9) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that any person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

5. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, constitute such committees as it considers necessary and may delegate to any committee such of its functions as it considers fit.

(2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee, persons who are, or are not, members of the Board, except that at least one member of a committee shall be a member of the Board.

(3) A person serving as a member of a committee shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine.

(4) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board a committee may regulate its own procedure.

6. The members of the Board or any committee shall be paid such allowances as the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

7. (1) If a member or person is present at a meeting of the Board or any committee of the Board at which any matter is the subject of consideration and in which matter the member or person or the member or person's spouse is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, the member or person shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question touching that matter.

(2) A declaration of interest made under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

8. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Agency, publish or disclose to any person otherwise than in the course of duties, the contents of any document, communication, or information which relates to, and which has come
(Amendment)

(2) Any person who knowingly contravenes the provisions of subparagraph (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.
