The Customs and Excise Act
(Volume 18 Cap 322)

The Customs and Excise (Temporary Admission) Rules, 2020

IN EXERCISE of the powers contained in section two hundred of the Customs and Excise Act, the following rules are hereby made for the purpose of the prescribing the manner and extent to which rebate of duty shall be applied as specified in Section 89 of the Act.

Title and commencement.

- 1.0 These rules may be cited as the Customs and Excise (Temporary Admissions) Rules, 2020.
- 2.0 These rules shall come into effect on 20th March, 2020.

3.0 Interpretation

3.1 In these rules unless the context otherwise requires—

“The Act” means the Customs and Excise Act (Cap 322)

“The Regulations” means the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations, 2000.

“Frontier Zone” means an area of the Customs territory adjacent to the land frontier, the extent of which is determined in national legislation and whose limits serve to distinguish frontier traffic from other traffic.

“Frontier Zone inhabitants” means persons established or resident in a frontier zone

“Frontier traffic” means importations carried out by Zone inhabitants between two adjacent frontier zones.

“Professional Equipment” means any equipment necessary for the exercise of the calling, trade or profession of a visiting person to perform a specific task. It does not include equipment used for the industrial manufacture or packaging of goods, equipment (except hand tools) for the exploitation of natural resources, or equipment for the construction, repair or maintenance of buildings or earthmoving and similar projects.

“Temporary Admission” means the Customs procedure under which certain goods can be brought into a Customs territory conditionally relieved totally or partially from payment of import duties and taxes; such goods must be imported for specific purposes and must be intended for re-exportation within a specified period and without having undergone any change except normal depreciation due to the use made of them.

3.2 Any terms used in these Rules which are defined in the Act shall have the meaning given to them in that Act.

3.3 Any terms used in these Rules which are defined in the regulations shall have the meaning given to them in those Regulations.

4.0 Eligibility for application for Temporary Admission Authority

4.1 Any person, natural or corporate, is eligible to apply to the Commissioner General for authority to temporarily import goods into Zambia pursuant to Regulations Seventy – eight of the Customs and Excise (general) Regulations.

4.2 The goods upon which an application for temporary admission shall be made should be owned by a person domiciled or resident outside Zambia.

5.0 Purpose and manner of making an application

5.1 An application for authority to temporary import of goods required under Regulations Seventy – eight of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations shall be made in writing in the manner prescribed hereunder for purposes of obtaining rebate of duty to the extent determined by the Commissioner General as outlined in these rules.

6.0 Form and content of Application

6.1 Every application required in terms of Regulations Seventy – eight of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations shall be made in a prescribed form

6.2 Every application made in the form specified in sub rule 6 (1) of this rule shall include information relating to the following:

- (a) Physical address of the applicant or importer if applicant is different from importer
- (b) Reasons for the request for temporary importation
- (c) Duration of stay for the goods to be temporarily imported
- (d) Identification details for the goods to be temporarily imported
